

San Bernardino Women's Club Presenting Five Artists to Perform

The "Musical Tea," long an annual event with the San Bernardino Women's Club, is being renewed this year and will be presented at the clubhouse, 31st and E Sts., Saturday afternoon. Purpose of this 2 to 4 p.m. tea is to raise additional money for scholarships presented by the Women's Club. These scholarships of $75 each, plus the money earned from the tea, will be presented to students

Lenten Session Planned by Episcopal Women

Women of St. John's Episcopal Church, San Bernardino, will meet for Holy Communion and services at 10 a.m. Thursday at the church, San Bernardino.

At 10:45 a.m., they will hear Dr. Douglas B. Northrop deliver a Lenten talk. Lenten meditations will be at 11:30 a.m. and will be followed with a business meeting.

Hostesses for the luncheon will be members of St. Teresa's Guild.

with high scholastic ratings at high schools in San Bernardino.

BALLERINA

Mrs. William P. Hand is in charge of the musical portion of the afternoon and announces the following persons as entertainers: Kathleen Wagner, ballerina; Harriet Douglass, pianist; Eloyce Gordon, lyric soprano; Bill Pinkerton, violinist; and Barry Rumbles, baritone.

Miss Wagner is a member of the First California Ballet Company of Los Angeles and Pasadena and will dance an interpretation of "Le Peri" as well as an excerpt from "Le Beau Danube." She has studied classic ballet for 10 years, the past four years under the tutelage of Eva Lorraine, director of the First California Ballet. She has performed at the Los Angeles Philharmonic Auditorium, Wilshire Ebell Theater, Pasadena Civic Auditorium and Redlands Bowl.

Mrs. Douglass will play Rhapsody Op. 79, No. 2 in G Minor by Brahms and Leschetitzky's Andante Finale from Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor" for the left hand alone. She is studying with Russell Baldwin at San Bernardino Valley College. She is a member of the Music Teachers' Assn. of California and is a private piano teacher. She was a music major at Westmont College in Santa Barbara.

REDLANDS BOWL

Miss Gordon, 18, is a freshman at San Bernardino Valley College. She received musical scholarship from St. Paul's Methodist Church in San Bernardino and will sing "The Little French Clock," "Take Joy Home" and "A Heart That's Free."

Pinkerton will announce his own program. He is a winner of the Redlands Bowl Auditions in 1957 and is a member of the University-Community Symphony and of the Redlands Bowl Symphony.

Rumbles will sing selections from "Oklahoma!" and other songs by Rodgers and Hammerstein. He has taken leading roles in opera all over the Southland and performed the title role in "The Mikado" at Redlands Bowl two summers ago. He is soloist at First Presbyterian Church in San Bernardino. He has studied with Lotte Lehmann and Armand Tokatyan.

Mrs. Florence Dobbs, general chairman, has announced that the decor for the day will be musical, featuring violins made of metallic paper and flowers. Co-chairmen with Mrs. Dobbs are Mrs. Charles R. Bramlett and Mrs. Nora Parker Coy. Mrs. Robert M. Parmelee is in charge of decoration; and will be assisted by Mrs. William G. Zuleh.

TEA CHAIRMAN

President Mrs. Louis R. Aragon is serving as tea chairman, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Ulber. Pouring will be Mmes. Coy, Aragon, Flores H. Barnum and O. C. McClintock.

The musical portion of the program will be presented from 2 until 3 p.m. and the tea will be served from 3 until 4 p.m. Tickets may be purchased in advance by telephoning Mrs. Dobbs, 428 W. 18th St., San Bernardino.
